Numbers 21:1-9

The 21st chapter of Numbers begins with an account of how God gave Israel victory over their greatest enemy, the Canaanite king of Arad. This king had attacked the Israelites and taken some of them prisoners.

The account says that after this great victory, as the Israelites had set out from Mount Hor, the people grew "impatient" and began to speak against God and Moses saying, "Why have you brought us out of Egypt to die in this wilderness?" They complained, "There is nothing to eat here and nothing to drink. And we hate this horrible manna!" "Manna" was bread from heaven that miraculously appeared each morning when the Israelites had previously complained about being hungry. Now it appears the Israelites consider this miraculous bread "nothing" and they consider their life of slavery in Egypt to be better than the life they have now.

The following verses state, "The Lord sent poisonous snakes among the people and many were bitten and died. Then the people came to Moses and cried out, 'We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you. Pray the Lord will take away the snakes.' So Moses prayed for the people."

God instructed Moses to make a replica of a poisonous snake and attach it to the end of a pole. All who are bitten will live if they simply look at it! So Moses made the bronze image of the snake and all who were bitten looked at the image on top of the pole and were healed.

What is most interesting about this story is that the Gospel of John refers to this story as an Easter example.

John 3:14-15 states, "And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in Him may have eternal life."

Jesus is the "Son of Man" and Jesus is "lifted up" when he died on the cross. The promise of the verse is that we will live by simply looking at Jesus on the cross who died for our sins and the promise is that God will give us life and healing from the consequences of our sinful rebellion which is death.

I think we often consider our sinfulness as wrong and it possibly leads to bad things in our lives. But the Gospel message is that our sinfulness will kill us and the consequence of that sinfulness is death. The Christian faith is not as much a matter of right and wrong as it is a matter of life or death. And what God offers us is not just words to say it is OK that we are forgiven sinners but more than that God offers us life in its abundance.

We celebrate Easter because Jesus dying on the cross makes Easter possible. We are given resurrected life on Easter because God forgives us our sins by Jesus' death on the cross. We cannot have the resurrected life apart from the cross.

I think another appreciation we need to have is that the resurrected life is meant to give us life now and not just after death. When the people of Israel were healed it was immediate and the very instrument that reminded them of their sin, the serpent, was now to remind them of the forgiveness and healing God offered.

Eternity begins now! Life begins now! Forgiveness is offered now!

What Jesus offers is life but that life is only available because of Jesus' death on the cross.

Look upon Jesus' death on the cross and be reminded both of your sinfulness but also the healing and life God offers. The resurrection from the dead is just the beginning of the life God offers us all.

An e-mail list is being compiled by the church office and you can add yourself to the group list by just dropping a note into the offering plate or calling the church office at 448-1888. Worship During Lent

We will have Wednesday worship services during Lent and each service will begin with a Soup Supper. The Soup Suppers begin at 6:00pm and the worship begins at 7:00pm. Confirmation will continue to also meet at 6:00pm.

For Lent will we be looking into the fall of humanity as recorded in Genesis. How exciting to get to the root of our need for forgiveness, a forgiveness that Jesus accomplished for us in His death and resurrection.

Got Something You Want to Share? Post It!

..or rather, talk to Becky Byrd about posting it on one of the church's bulletin boards. Becky has volunteered to take care of the bulletin boards and welcomes pictures, upcoming event notices, requests/offers for help, small church-related news bits, and other suggestions. You can contact her by phone at (619)971-6322 or email her at ebyrd05@gmail.com. Whether you've got something for her or not, keep a lookout for the freshening up and be sure to check the boards for what's new! Thank you, Becky!

What to do, what to do...

Wonder what you might do around the church? Think you're sure you don't have enough time or talent anyway? Take another look at the bright yellow sheets on the table at the back of the church! There are all sorts of ways to become more involved, we will train if necessary and welcome you to the opportunities the church offers. If you think you already know, take another look and see if God might be nudging you. Time/Talent surveys can be given to Keri Hyles or turned in to the church office.

What Kind of Stew is THAT?

Stewardship. We have a whole board of it (not bored of it) set out in the church bylaws, for what? It's Biblical! Really, truly. Remember shortly after In The Beginning, when God created humankind? Right in there, humankind is charged with being stewards of God's good creation.

Stewards are the caretakers, not the owners. We recognize, and then need to be always reminding ourselves, that everything we have is God's. It's our job to take care of what God has given us, and we give back. This can mean different things to different people – what do you do with the resources God has give to you personally, to you as a family, to us as a church, us as a community, us as the Church?

These are all good things to meditate over during Lent, but I'd like to start with us as a church. In many churches, Stewardship starts and ends as the money drive(s) for the church's budget. At Carlton Hills, we are blessed to be in a financial place that allows us to focus primarily on other ways we give and also other places to give. So please, mull it over. If you have ideas of things that we can do as a church or can't think of a thing but are willing to help, let me know! We'll have a meeting between services on Sunday, April 10th at 10:15am in the back of the church. If you can't make it but are interested, please email keri.hyles@gmail.com or give me a call at (619)449-2314.

The 7th Annual Make a Joyful Noise Art and Music Summer Camp

July 6th (Wednesday) to July 29th (Friday)

Monday through Friday

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

(before and after care available)

Pre-K thru 6th

(a.m. half-day option for Pre-K age)

Plan for one week or send your child all four weeks

(Camperships available)

At the end of camp, all campers and staff will participate in a performance on July 28th at 6:30 p.m.

Summer camp is a great opportunity for children to learn God's word, socialize with others, sing praise songs, participate in art and music activities, explore self awareness, learn personal responsibility, play games with their peers (kickball was a favorite last year), and have fun! Campers do not need a music or art background to participate. Individual music lessons available (drums, flute, guitar, harmonica, piano, and voice). This year our theme is Safari – Go Wild for GOD! We will have some new rotations around this theme including a photography and sewing rotation. Staff interviews were March 15th. We have an amazing group of high school and college youth that will lead the rotations and be counselors.

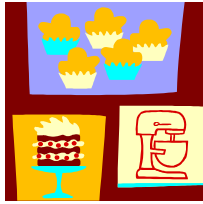

Camper Applications are posted on the church website and will be due prior to the beginning of camp. The fee is the same as it has been for six years (no increase) - $100 per camper, $50 for each sibling per week. If you come the entire time the rate is only $300 and $100 for siblings. Scholarships are available.
